Applying for an Australia Awards scholarship

Australia Awards scholarships in Vietnam

Australia's international development assistance in Vietnam helps promote prosperity, reduce poverty, and enhance political stability.

Australia Awards scholarships are prestigious international awards offered by the Australian Government to the next generation of global leaders in developing countries. Through study and research, recipients develop the skills and knowledge to drive change and help build enduring people-to-people links with Australia.

Applicants are assessed on their professional and personal qualities, academic competence and, most importantly, their potential to impact on development challenges in Vietnam.

Applications are strongly encouraged from women, people with disability and other marginalised groups. A support scheme is available to assist equal participation by people with disability and from other marginalised groups.

Priority fields of study

The priority areas of study for Vietnam are listed below noting that examples provided are not limited to the fields available for an Australia Awards Scholarship:

- Agriculture, Fisheries, Forestry (i.e. Agricultural economics, Aquacultural/Fisheries, Forestry, Rural Development)
- Digital transformation (i.e. Cyber security, Digital Business and Innovation, Digital communications)
- Information Technology (for applicants with disability only)
- Education (i.e. Education studies/management, Vocational Education and Training, Special Education)
- Environment, Climate Change and Energy (i.e. Environment studies including Water Resources, Mineral Resources, Climate Change Adaptation and Mitigation, Infrastructure and Transport, Sustainable/Renewable Energy Solutions and Innovation, Sustainable Tourism)
- Governance and Economic Growth (i.e. Public Policy Administration, Entrepreneurship and Innovation, Economics)
- Gender Equality, Disability (i.e. Women and Gender Studies, Disability Services, Social policy and social protection)
- Health (i.e. Health policy and services, Public health, Mental Health)
- Regional stability and Human Rights (i.e. International law, Criminology, Maritime security/sustainability, Journalism and media)

Studies in other fields (except Business Administration, Medicine, Pharmacy) will be considered based on merit.

The governments of Australia and Vietnam regularly review these areas of study together and adjust the emphasis of the program. Detailed information on priority areas of study can be found at <https://australiaawardsvietnam.org/>

Applicants should select courses that align with their experience and qualifications or provide a strong justification for courses that represent a shift in career focus or direction.

Applicants are recommended to use the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS) <https://cricos.education.gov.au/> for course selection.

Level of study

Australia Awards scholarships provide citizens of Vietnam with the opportunity to obtain a qualification at an Australian tertiary institution.

Awards will be offered for master's degree commencing in 2025 within the following allocations:

- central/city/provincial/district-level agencies
- vocational education and training colleges
- universities
- Vietnamese/state research institutions
- Vietnamese companies
- Vietnamese NGOs
- international NGOs
- foreign companies (for people with disabilities).

Australia Awards benefits

Australia Awards scholarships are offered for the minimum period necessary for the individual to complete the academic program specified by the Australian education institution, including any preparatory training.

If recognition of prior learning is granted, the recipient may be placed in a degree program that is shorter in duration than for which they have originally applied for.

Scholarship recipients will receive the following:

- return air travel
- a one-off establishment allowance on arrival
- full tuition fees
- contribution to living expenses
- introductory academic program
- overseas student health cover for the duration of the scholarship
- supplementary academic support
- fieldwork allowance for research students and masters by coursework which has a compulsory fieldwork component.

Opening date: 1 February 2024

Closing date: 30 April 2024 (11:59PM AEST)

Applications and/or supporting documents received after the closing date will not be considered.

The application process

Online applications

All applications must be lodged online through OASIS at <https://oasis.dfat.gov.au/>.

Supporting documents

Applicants must submit all the relevant supporting documents listed in the Australia Awards Scholarships Policy Handbook.

Applicants must also provide the additional documents to meet the specific requirements for Vietnam. Please refer to <https://australiaawardsvietnam.org/> for a full list of required supporting documents.

Australia Awards Scholarships are administered by the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT), which has zero tolerance of fraudulent activity or behaviour. DFAT defines fraud as dishonestly obtaining a benefit, or causing a loss, by deception or other means. For example, providing false or misleading information or not providing relevant information could be considered as fraud. This may include failing to declare previous study undertaken, irrespective of whether it is complete or incomplete.

Where fraud is detected, the application will be deemed ineligible, and the applicant will be barred from applying for an Australia Awards Scholarship in future rounds.

The selection process

- Applications will be shortlisted after eligibility checking.
- Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.
- The selection process includes an interview. Applicants will be assessed against the following criteria:
 - academic competence
 - potential outcome, specifically the contribution to development outcomes in Vietnam.
 - professional and personal leadership attributes including relevant work experience.
- Successful candidates will be notified in August 2024.
- Awardee travel will be subject to meeting the requirements imposed by the Australian Government, as determined by the federal Department of Education and by the relevant Australian State or Territory governments.

Preparatory training

Successful applicants will be required to attend:

- English Language Training program in Vietnam of up to 12 months (depending on your English level), if you do not achieve an IELTS Academic overall score of at least 6.5, with no band less than 6.0 or an equivalent TOEFL iBT or PTE Academic score.
- course counselling
- pre-departure briefing
- university's Introductory Academic Program
- other required preparatory study on arrival in Australia.

Australia Awards

Australia for ASEAN

Applying for an Australia for ASEAN scholarship

At the ASEAN-Australia Special Summit held in March 2024, Australia's Prime Minister announced 75 Australia for ASEAN Scholarships to support emerging ASEAN leaders to study in Australia and advance the ASEAN Outlook on the Indo-Pacific (AOIP).

Australia for ASEAN scholarships are prestigious international awards offered by the Australian Government to the next generation of leaders from ASEAN member states. Through study and research, recipients develop the skills and knowledge to drive change and help build enduring people-to-people links with Australia.

The Australian Government and Australia's world class university sector are jointly contributing to these scholarships, demonstrating Australia's whole-of-nation commitment to the region. The following universities are partnering with this program:

- Australian National University
- Bond University
- Deakin University
- Griffith University
- Monash University
- Queensland University of Technology
- RMIT University
- Swinburne University of Technology
- University of Adelaide
- University of Melbourne
- University of New South Wales
- University of Queensland
- University of Southern Queensland
- University of Tasmania.

All applicants that apply for an Australia Award at one of the universities above will also be considered for the Australia for ASEAN Scholarships.

Australia for ASEAN scholars will also participate in an ASEAN Emerging Leaders Program, which will provide a range of learning, networking and development opportunities.

The Australia for ASEAN Scholarships priority areas of study include:

- Maritime
- Connectivity
- Economic
- Sustainable Development Cooperation

Detailed information on priority areas of study can be found at: <https://asean.org/speechandstatement/asean-outlook-on-the-indo-pacific/>

Australia for ASEAN scholarships provide an opportunity to obtain a Master by research or Master by coursework qualification at an Australian tertiary institution. Students wishing to undertake a Masters by research degree are strongly encouraged to apply.

Scholarships will be offered for commencement in 2025.

The Australia for ASEAN scholarships benefits and application process remain the same as the Australia Awards program

Eligibility criteria

Australia for ASEAN scholarship applicants must meet all eligibility requirements detailed in the Australia Awards Scholarships Policy Handbook, available at: <https://www.dfat.gov.au/sites/default/files/aus-awards-scholarships-policy-handbook.pdf>

In addition to these eligibility requirements, candidates from Vietnam must also meet the country-specific eligibility requirements as outlined at <https://australiaawardsvietnam.org/>

The application process

Online applications

Citizens from the following ASEAN countries: Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Myanmar, Philippines, Vietnam and Timor Leste citizens should follow the same application procedure as Australia Awards Scholarships 2025 Intake for your country.
